

Psalm 114

Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling,
for it is God who works in you to will and to do. (Phil 2:12–13)

When Israel went out from Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his domain.

The sea looked and fled;
Jordan turned back.
The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.

What ails you, O sea, that you flee?
O Jordan, that you turn back?
O mountains, that you skip like rams?
O hills, like lambs?

Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob,
who turns the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into springs.

Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling,
for it is God who works in you to will and to do. (Phil 2:12–13)
